

Typical Network Configuration Optimized for a VoIP Solution

The following diagram is an example of a typical network setup optimized for a VoIP solution. Please contact your Warner Communications representative for an evaluation of your specific network configuration to determine if VoIP is the solution for your organization.

